

Investments Manager

SUMMARY:

Analyzes financial information to forecast business, industry, and economic conditions, for use in making investment decisions.

Job Functions include: (Note: this is a representative list only - complete list provided with purchase)

- Gathers and analyzes company financial statements, industry, regulatory and economic information, and financial periodicals and newspapers.
- Interprets data concerning price, yield, stability, and future trends of investments in line with the organization's investment policies and practices.
- Summarizes data describing current and long term trends in investment risks and economic influences pertinent to various types of investments.
- Recommends investment timing and buy-and-sell strategy consistent with organization investment policy establishment by the Investment Committee of the Board of Directors.

(also details Supervisory Responsibilities, Qualifications, Education and/or Experience, Language Skills, and work environment)