Network Services Manager – Job Description Summary

Manages Information Technology department personnel assigned to network services, core financial and telecommunications systems. Manages all of the elements necessary to secure corporate network systems against unauthorized access. Configures security systems for operational deployment and assists management in developing overall network security policy for the organization. Monitors server and firewall logs and makes configuration modifications as required. Stays abreast of the latest network security technology to insure against any breach of customer privacy and confidential information.

The complete job description covers the following topics:

- Essential duties and responsibilities
- Supervisory responsibilities
- Qualification requirements
- Education and experience
- Language skills
- Mathematical skills
- Reasoning ability
- Certificates, licenses, registrations
- Physical demands
- Work environment
- Mental demands